Reflections on lifelong learning Unlimited Performance Inc

Reflections on lifelong learning. John Carroll Strategist. Back in the 1990s, during the heyday of American management s quality revolution, one of the movement s many battle cries came in the form of a question: Why is it that there s never time to do the job right the first time, but there s always time to do it over? Workers and managers alike would shake their heads, as many

Reflection on the learning Assessment for learning in

When students become reflective about the teaching and learning process, they are strengthening their own capacity to learn. Central to this is the principal of reflection as metacognition, where students are aware of and can describe their thinking in a way that allows them to "close the gap" between what they know and what they need to learn.
